

77th Republic Day of India at Kangla, Imphal on 26th January 2026

Marking the 77th Republic Day of India, the Hon'ble Governor of Manipur took the salute at the ceremonial parade held at the historic Kangla, Imphal on 26th January, 2026 and reaffirming the nation's commitment to unity, sovereignty, and constitutional values. The parade featured marching contingents from the State Armed Forces, Assam Rifles, Central Armed Police Forces, Ex-Servicemen, NCC, Sainik School, as well as school and college students, symbolising discipline, service, and the spirit of collective nation-building. The celebrations also included a disciplined martial arts demonstration, vibrant tableaux by various government departments, and cultural performances reflecting the rich heritage and unity of Manipur.

As a part of the 77th Republic Day Celebration, the Hon'ble Governor hosted 'At Home' reception at Lok Bhavan, Imphal, this afternoon. Speaker of Manipur Legislative Assembly, Chief Justice of High Court of Manipur, MLAs, Chief Secretary, Security Advisor, DGP, other senior officers of Police, Army and Paramilitary forces, eminent personalities, artists, awardees, special invitees among others were present. The Hon'ble Governor extended warm greetings of the Republic Day to all the dignitaries who were present at the occasion and welcomed them. The dignitaries were entertained with high tea.